Patrick's Lawn and Garden

Is your grass overgrown? Are your gardens out of control? During the summer, yard work can take a lot of time and effort. Why not leave the work to me so that you can enjoy your summer?

My name is Patrick and since I was a kid, I have worked outside around my parents' house. I have a lawnmower that will cut your grass beautifully! I can also clean up your gardens, getting rid of all the unwanted, ugly weeds that prevent flowers and vegetables from growing. If you're away on vacation, I can even water your plants and lawn.

I'm out of school over the summer until September 2, so my schedule is free until then. Send me an email with your contact details and I will visit your home to give you an idea of how much I would charge.

It was not the happiest place to grow up, but there his passion for drawing began. After the war, he bought two pads of paper and filled them with drawings, bringing them to an interview at Walt Disney Studios. Read the conversation between Julina and Tomas.

Julina: Hey, Tomas. Since we're on spring break this week, maybe we can check out the new shopping mall.

Tomas: Oh, the one that was being built on Ocean Road?

Julina: Yes. The grand opening is this Saturday.

Tomas: Oh, that was fast. They only started building it last spring.

Julina: Yeah, the cool thing about it is that there's an aquarium inside that has an underwater tunnel. It's supposed to feel like you're walking on the ocean floor. I heard they have a dolphin show, too. Do you want to see it together?

Tomas: The dolphin show... I'm really not into that kind of thing.

Julina: Oh, why's that?

Tomas: Well, I'm against the way the animals are treated.

Julina: What do you mean?

Tomas: Well, you know the way they train the dolphins is pretty cruel. They don't feed them before doing training so that they are more willing to learn the tricks and obey the trainers.

Julina: Oh, seriously? But I feel like such shows do a lot to educate people about marine life.

Tomas: You think so? I'm not sure that treating animals like that is benefiting anyone. They are basically ^{*1}torturing animals for our entertainment purposes.

Julina: But they're dolphins, not humans! They're probably happy to be in a safe place like an aquarium where they are guaranteed access to food and are not in danger of being killed by ^{*2}predators.

Tomas: Do you really think they're happy? In the wild, they are free and manage to find food on their own. As for predators, that's part of the ocean's ecosystem and the food chain.

Julina: Well, how do you know dolphins are unhappy? You can't ask them.

Tomas: Of course you can't, but living in such conditions must be terrible. They are kept in small tanks like prisoners.

Julina: Well, I still think the shows are a good way to get people interested in oceans. So, how did you learn about this issue?

Tomas: I talked to a few protesters who were at the shopping mall construction site last summer. They were handing out informational pamphlets and trying to convince the mall developers to stop building the aquarium.

Julina: Maybe I should learn more about the issue. Do you still have the information?

Tomas: Yeah, I'll lend it to you next time.

(注) *¹torture ～ (を) ひどく痛めつける *²predator 捕食動物

問 1 (1 1)

How did Tomas learn about the issue of dolphin shows?

- ① He read about it in a marine science textbook.
- ② He spoke to some workers at a construction site.
- ③ Some people at a demonstration gave him details.
- ④ Some trainers at a dolphin show taught him.

問 2 (1 2)

Which of the following statements does NOT match Julina's opinion?

- ① Dolphins are safer living in aquariums than in the wild.
- ② Dolphin shows are a positive educational tool.
- ③ It is hard to tell whether dolphins are happy or not in aquariums.
- ④ Living conditions for dolphins in aquariums are unacceptable.

問 3 (1 3)

Which of the following statements would Tomas likely agree with?

- ① Dolphin shows allow people to learn more about sea creatures.
- ② Dolphins must be satisfied with their lives in aquariums.
- ③ Teaching dolphins to perform should continue as usual.
- ④ Watching dolphin shows directly supports the bad treatment of animals.

問 4 (1 4)

Which of the following is true about the shopping mall?

- ① It took about a year to build.
- ② It was constructed mostly beneath the ocean.
- ③ It was opened up recently.
- ④ It will open much later than expected.

問5 (15)

What will Julina most likely do after reading the pamphlet from Tomas?

- ① Cancel her plans of seeing the dolphin show.
- ② Check the mall website for opening details.
- ③ Go to the construction site to join the protest.
- ④ Train dolphins using a more effective method.

Read the message exchange between Janice and Diego.

—Friday, March 10, 2023, 8:02 a.m.—

Hello, Diego,

This is Janice. My family and I are currently staying at your townhouse on Mandalay Bay Street. So far, we have really enjoyed the place. The view from the second floor balcony is amazing—you can really see the whole cityscape below.

However, there is one problem we are experiencing. While I was cooking dinner last night, one of the ^{*1}gas burners stopped working. Luckily, the other burner was fine, and we could finish cooking the stew. We tried several times to get the other one to work again, but nothing helped. As I am planning to cook a lot while here, I'm wondering if you could have it fixed. The kitchen was one of the most important things we looked at when booking, so the sooner you can have it functioning again, the better. As you can probably imagine, traveling with kids can make eating out very expensive, especially in this part of the city. Hope it's not too much trouble. Hear from you soon.

—Friday, March 10, 2023, 9:10 a.m.—

Hello, Janice,

I'm so glad to hear you are enjoying your stay at the Mandalay Bay Street townhouse and that you are taking full advantage of the spectacular view. If you haven't found them, there are some cushions you can put out on the balcony chairs in the bedroom closet. Please use them!

I apologize for the inconvenience regarding the burner. That's the first time anything like this has happened. I'll arrange to have a person come out to repair it today. As it's gas-related, please refrain from using either burner until the repairs have been completed! With gas issues, you can never be too careful. Also, since cooking was an important factor for you, I will gladly refund you for two days of your stay. Hopefully, the problem can be taken care of quickly and you'll be able to start cooking again soon and not spend too much on eating out.

I'll have someone out there this afternoon around 2 p.m. Will you be out at this time? If it's OK with you, I'll give the repair person the 4-digit security code to enter. After that, I'll send you a new one.

(注) *¹gas burner ガスコンロ

問1 (16)

Why does Diego offer to give Janice money back?

- ① Because she can't stay at the townhouse for the next two days.
- ② Because she will be unable to cook until the issue is solved.
- ③ Because the money will not cover the cost of the repairs.
- ④ Because the repairs will take at least two days to finish.

問2 (17)

What was Janice's main reason for staying at the townhouse?

- ① The cost per night
- ② The cooking facilities
- ③ The location in a nice part of town

According to Diego, the problem Janice described...

- ① has not been an issue there before.
- ② has often happened at the property.
- ③ is not a very serious one after all.
- ④ was caused by her carelessness.

問4 (19)

Which of the following is true about Janice?

- ① She is enjoying the nearby restaurants.
- ② She is looking for other accommodation.
- ③ She is traveling by herself on the trip.
- ④ She is trying to save money on meals.

問5 (20)

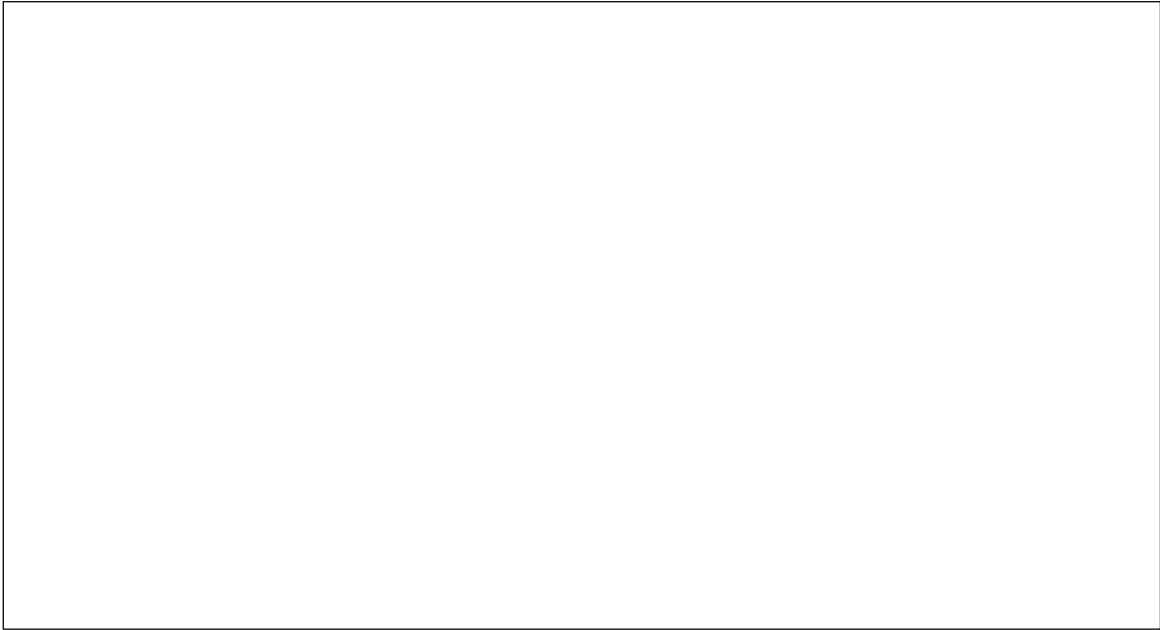

What does Diego promise to do after the repairs are done?

- ① Ask Janice to pay for the repairs.
- ② Bring Janice more cushions to use.
- ③ Drop by to meet with Janice in person.
- ④ Send Janice the numbers to get inside.
